CARRIE SAYRE

Sales Director

As a Sales Director with IPG, Carrie values honesty and loyalty as core values and desires, above all, to be genuine. This offers you, the advisor, a relationship you can depend on as you help answer your clients' questions and seek to meet their needs.

Believing that, "A financially secure future provides a sense of wellbeing for our clients, allowing them to live a fuller, healthier life – both mentally and physically", Carrie sees what our industry offers as a critical service to our neighbors, friends and clients.

Carrie lives in Ft. Worth, TX, and is currently President of the Fort Worth chapter of NAIFA, on the National Board of WIFS (Women in Insurance and Financial Services), and a Member of FSP.
