HELPING FINANCIAL ADVISORS HELP THEIR CLIENTS.

DIANE MARTINEZ CONTRACTING SPECIALIST

Diane adds value to IPG and to you with the strong work ethic instilled by her father who told her and her siblings that they needed to “earn their sleep”! She tries to live by both the Golden Rule and the Hippocratic Oath - treat others well and do no harm. The advantage to you, the advisor, is that Diane will go “above and beyond”. Her experience, knowledge, skills and abilities add to what IPG can offer our advisors, and our ability to operate effectively as an organization.

Diane graduated from St. Mary’s College in Moraga, California in 2005 with a BA in Management and has four years of new business experience with both Mutual of Omaha and Mass Mutual. She understands that customer support services are critical to an advisor’s career and success. As such, she approaches her responsibilities with empathy, sensitivity and urgency, always striving to be both reliable and resourceful.

Diane lives in Phoenix with her husband Orlando. She loves to spend time with family, friends and her dog, Sadie. She also enjoys traveling, good food and baking.
